

Double Select Buttero

A suit does not make the man, but the shoes? That's another story...

At Double Select we live and breathe footwear; the pursuit of the perfect fit taking us beyond passion into obsession. We have travelled the world searching for inspiration, seeking out the most striking styles and forging collaborations in order to bring you the very best of foot-caressing fashion. With Buttero, we're pretty sure we've found it.

Created exclusively for Double Select, the Buttero Perforated Topo and Sneaker will put more than a spring in your step. With bouncing rubber soles topped with hand-crafted supple vegetable-tanned calf skin and the softest suede respectively, punch-hole detailing for breathability and style, and strong leather laces, quality and finesse shine through. Buttero for Double Select deliver comfort and originality with every step.

Italian's do style the way the French do food and the English do music. It's innate, unavoidable and utterly unmistakable. That Italian style simply oozes from the Buttero collection for Double Select, combining premium materials with artisan-craftsmanship and techniques which have been used for centuries. Eye-catching colours complete the perfection.

Together, Buttero and Double Select are bringing the most sumptuous shoes of Tuscany home to English streets.
