Pretty Polly Secret Socks come to the winter rescue review by Emily Hirschmann

It's that time of year when bare legs really aren't an option and long boots and tights really come into their own. The main problem with that lovely combo however, is that tights and zips generally lead to laddering and the layered trend of wearing long socks in between the two can often result in uncomfortable bunched fabric around the toes and a look that can pilot you towards a fashion faux pas in extremis. Never fear; Pretty Polly is here putting the funk into functional with the launch of the Secret Sock.

Combining a soft modal sock with sexy 20 denier tights, the Secret Sock is the answer to your winter footwear prayers. The all-in-one design is not only practical and fashionable, but incredibly comfortable too, offering just the right amount of stretch and hold to leave your legs feeling as good as they look, with no friction or drag-down... Nora Batty knees and ankles are a thing of the past.

Available in three styles – knee-high, thigh-high and patterned – there should be a Secret Sock to suit your needs. And with a chance to win a 10-100% discount with the Pretty Polly Sock-Horrorometer from the PP Facebook page (www.facebook.com/prettypolly), it won't be long before the Secret Sock is warming a pair of feet near you.

Pretty Polly Secret Socks are £10.00 per pair and available from all good hosiers and online at www.prettypolly.com
